

Safeguarding Children
Cork and Ross Diocese

Safeguarding Strategy and Plan

January 1st 2020
to December 31st 2022

Introduction.

The Diocese of Cork and Ross recognises that to keep children and adults safe, policies, procedures and plans have to be implemented and their effectiveness monitored and evaluated. In order to do this the Diocese has outlined the following strategy. This strategy is in place and operational.

1.0 Establishment of Safeguarding Structures.

The Diocese of Cork and Ross under the Bishop has established the following structures in order to ensure its safeguarding policies, procedures and plans are fully implemented and monitored.

Safe-Environment Safeguarding Structure in the Diocese of Cork and Ross

- Bishop – Overall responsibility for Safeguarding in the Diocese.
- Director of Safeguarding – To Support the Bishop in the development, implementation and monitoring of best practice in Safeguarding throughout the parishes and agencies of the Diocese of Cork and Ross. (See expand role in appendix of this document)
- Parish Priest – Overall responsibility at parish level for Safeguarding .
- Local Safeguarding Representative (LSR) – Every Parish in the Diocese will appoint at least one lay person as Local Safeguarding Representative in order to promote safeguarding in conjunction with the Parish Priest by:
 - Raising Awareness of Diocesan Safeguarding Policies & Procedures.
 - Ensure contact details for Designated Persons are widely available.
 - Ensure church activities are in line with best practice.
- Safeguarding Committee – To support and advise the Bishop and Director of Safeguarding for the diocese on:
 - The provision of training.
 - The safe recruitment of volunteers and staff within their service area.
 - Creating, maintaining and monitoring a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults in all aspects of Church life and activity.
 - Advising on the human resources required for implementing best practice.

Safeguarding Trainers – The diocese has three trainers, accredited by National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland (NBSCCCI) who are responsible for the provision of all aspects of safeguarding training to Clergy, Staff, Volunteers, Parents and Children/Young People throughout the Diocese.

Case Management Structure in the Diocese of Cork and Ross.

- Bishop – Overall responsibility for Safeguarding in the Diocese.
- Designated Liaison Persons (DLP) – The Diocese has appointed two Designated Liaison Persons. (See Appendix for role description).

- Statutory Authorities – The Diocese has established collaborative and professional links with key safeguarding personnel in the Tusla/HSE and liaises closely with An Garda Síochána.
- Case Management Committee - (See Appendix for expanded role).
- Support Person(s) – The Diocese has appointed a Support Person who is available to those who make an allegation/disclosure of abuse. (See Appendix for expanded role).
- Adviser – The Diocese has appointed Advisers who will be available to the respondent. (See Appendix for expanded role)

2.0 Development and Review of Diocesan Safeguarding Policies & Procedures Document.

The Diocese has developed Diocesan Safeguarding Policies and Procedures for both children and Adults at Risk. Both are in line with Statutory and Church Guidelines. This Documents are widely disseminated and made available to all Clergy, Staff, Volunteers, Diocesan Agencies, Committees, Parents & Children/Young People.

The Diocesan Policies and Procedures are operational and are made known to the whole church community including children/young people. All people, clergy, Staff & Volunteers, who through their ministry in the Catholic Church within the Diocese of Cork and Ross have direct contact with children/young people and or adults at risk , are obliged to sign-up to this policy document and all that it contains.

The Diocesan Policy & Procedures Documents will be reviewed and updated in accordance with the Diocesan Review Policy for the document.

3.0 Implementation, Monitoring & Evaluation of Safeguarding Children Policies & Procedures.

The Diocese through its structures as outlined above will continually endeavour to implement, monitor & evaluate its Safeguarding Policies and Procedures. This will be achieved in the following ways:

- Best Practice Audits of Parishes – The Diocese through its Safeguarding Committee, led by the Diocesan Director of Safeguarding will conduct regular audits of all parishes in the diocese to ensure all pertinent aspects of Safeguarding Policies and Procedures are being implemented and monitored. The audit will include the completion of a written review questionnaire encompassing all aspects of Safeguarding Policies & Procedures. This will be completed by the Parish Priest & Local Safeguarding Representative and returned to Office of Safeguarding in the Diocese.

- The Diocesan Office of Safeguarding will facilitate Implementation and Monitoring Workshops for Priests and Local Safeguarding representatives.
- Training will provided by the Diocesan Trainers to all staff and volunteers to ensure they are familiar and competent in all matters concerning Safeguarding.
- The Policy and Procedures Document will be reviewed annually and updated a least every three years in line with the Diocesan Review Policy for the document, taking on board the views and opinions of staff, volunteers, and children/young people and aligned to Legislation, Statutory & Church Guidelines.
- The Diocese will constantly be attentive to the communication of its Safeguarding Policies & Procedures and use all methods at its disposal to ensure that it is communicated as clearly and as widely as possible. Communication methods will include:

➤ Dissemination of Safeguarding Policy & Procedures Document in various formats to Clergy, Staff, Volunteers, Diocesan Agencies, Parent & Children/Young People.

➤ Raising Awareness conferences for Parishes/Deaneries.

- Posters.
- Website.
- Brochures/Flyers ➤ Newsletters.
- Regional Papers when deemed appropriate
- Parish Newsletters/Bulletins.
- Letters/Emails to Key Safeguarding Personnel.
- Meetings/Briefing with Key Safeguarding Personnel.
- Liaising with HSE Information & Advise Office and Tusla for the region and the NBSCCCI.

The Diocese recognises that all strategies and plans must be dynamic and so it will review its strategy and plan on an on-going basis.

Safeguarding Trainers

- Working with the safeguarding committee to identify training needs.
- Delivering full-day and information-session safeguarding training to those identified by the safeguarding committee in the Church body.
- Keeping records of all of those who have been trained.
- Contributing to upholding the seven standards in practice and behaviour.

Local Safeguarding Representative (LSR)

- Raising awareness of what safeguarding is.
- Disseminating information regarding the standards and guidance and circulating this information widely.
- Ensuring Church activities are provided in a way that ensures the safety and well-being of the children involved.
- Ensuring that the contact details of the DLP, Gardaí , HSE and Tulsa/HSCT are widely publicised.
- Upholding the seven standards in practice and behaviour.

National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland (NBSCCCI)

- Assisting with the development of policy, procedures and practices across the Catholic Church in Ireland.
- Offering advice on best practice, including training, case management and implementation of national standards and guidance.
- Monitoring the practice of child safeguarding across the Catholic Church in Ireland.

National Case Management Committee (NCMC)

The National Case Management Committee (NCMC) is part of the National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church Ireland. Its role is to offer advice and support to the Diocese on all aspects of the investigative process into alleged abuse.

- The NCMC exists as a function of NBSCCCI, and is chaired and administered by its staff.
- The NCMC functions as an all-island group, offering advice to Church authorities on all aspects of the investigative process into alleged abuse (including the areas listed under the role of the advisory panel).
- Membership is agreed through the signing of a data processing deed, which allows the sharing of full information with the NCMC and is fully compliant with data protection legislation in both jurisdictions.
